

WHATSAPP RULES

- Always keep to the purpose of the group! Don't share irrelevant messages about other topics
- Do not spam the group!
- Post your message in one single chunk of text, don't post every word or sentence in a new message.
- Your message must be relevant to the whole group
- Do not have one-on-one conversations in the group. Switch to private messages.
- Do not post between 22:00 and 07:00 unless it is an all-out emergency. By emergency, we mean the "blood, floods, and broken bones" type of emergency, not the "I needed crew for tomorrow's race" type of emergency.
- If a message asks for a positive response, don't reply in the negative. Only say if you are able.
- If someone asks a question and you don't know the answer don't respond with "I don't know". Just wait for someone who knows the answer to reply.
- Please don't send in a hundred "thank you" messages. If you feel gratitude towards someone – tell them in a private message.
- If someone asks a question of a personal nature (like asking for advice) don't respond if someone else has already answered, or else respond to the person directly in a private message.
- The group is not a political platform. No arguing, no heated opinions, no fear mongering, no hyped up drama, no fake news.
- Never EVER use a group to berate someone else or air grievances. If you have an issue address it one on one with the relevant person.
- Don't send data-insensitive messages. No-one wants their last 3GB used up on a racing action video
- If it gets too annoying for you, disable "Sound Notifications" for your Whatsapp group. This is a sanity saver. You will still receive all the messages, but your phone won't make a noise for every one of them.

If you are not sure, ask yourself these three questions before you post:

1. Is this relevant?
2. Is this necessary?
3. Is this a good time to post?
